

2nd SYED ASAD HUSSAIN INTER-DEPARTMENTAL DECLAMATION FALL 2022

On 6th January, COMSATS University Lahore (CUI Lahore) held its annual Interdepartmental Declamation Contest. The event was organized by the CLDS and was open to all departments of CUI Lahore.

The competition was divided into two categories: English and Urdu. Each department was allowed to send up to three participants for each category. The participants were judged on their oratory skills, content, and delivery.

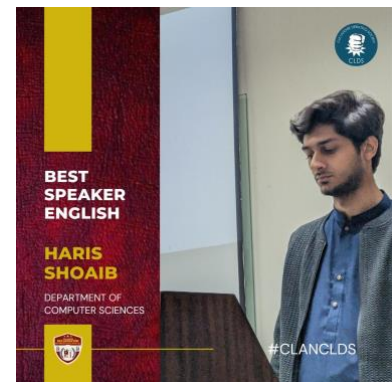

The competition was fierce, with many talented speakers from all departments. The contestants included Awais Ranjha from the Department of Psychology, Hina Hamid from the Department of Psychology, Azaan from the Software Engineering Department, Haris Shoaib from the Software Engineering Department, Noor ul Qamar from the Humanities Department, Zainab Jabeen from the Physics Department, Junaid Salman from the Computer Engineering Department, Muhammad Dawood Aslam from the Humanities Department, and Hina Hamid from the Psychology Department. Our former members of CLDS and winner from last year's Declamation judged the event.

After a series of intense rounds, the judges declared the winners. In the English category, the winner was Haris Shoaib from the Department of Computer Science, while in the Urdu category, the winner was Awais Ranjha from the Department of Psychology and Hina Hameed was the runner up to the cup.

The event was a great success and was enjoyed by all the participants and spectators. It was a great opportunity for students to showcase their oratory skills and gain confidence in public speaking. The winners were awarded certificates and prizes.

Overall, the Interdepartmental Declamation Contest was a great success and provided a platform for students to express themselves and hone their public speaking skills. The competition was fierce and the participants were judged on their oratory skills, content, and delivery. The contestants included Awais Ranjha from the Department of Psychology, Hina Hamid from the Department of Psychology, Azaan from the Software Engineering Department, Haris Shoaib from the Software Engineering Department, Noor ul Qamar from the Humanities Department, Zainab Jabeen from the Physics Department, Junaid Salman from the Computer Engineering Department, Muhammad Dawood Aslam from the Humanities Department, and Hina Hamid from the Psychology Department. After a series of intense rounds, the judges declared the winners. In the English category, the winner was Haris Shoaib from the Department of Computer Science, while in the Urdu category, the winner was Awais Ranjha from the Department of Psychology and Hina Hameed was the runner up to the cup.

The event was a great success and was enjoyed by all the participants and spectators. It was a great opportunity for students to showcase their oratory skills and gain confidence in public speaking. The winners were awarded certificates and prizes. The competition was an excellent platform for students to express themselves and hone their public speaking skills.

The event was well-attended by students from all departments and was a great success. The participants were judged on their oratory skills, content, and delivery. The competition was fierce and the participants put in their best efforts to impress the judges. The winners were awarded certificates and prizes.

Overall, the Interdepartmental Declamation Contest was a great success and provided a platform for students to express themselves and hone their public speaking skills. The competition was an excellent opportunity for students to showcase their talents and gain confidence in public speaking.

