

“There are enormous opportunities and exceptional potential for Islamic finance in Pakistan” said Prof. Dr. Qaisar Abbas while delivering a ‘Career Talk’ to the graduating cohort at INCEIF, an only dedicated university to Islamic finance on the planet. Students from many nationalities participated in the program. Prof. Dr. Qaisar Abbas (Director, COMSATS Institute of Information Technology (CIIT) Lahore) urged students to join Center of Islamic Finance (CIF) at CIIT Lahore for exciting career in the field. He informed the audience that CIF is the first Center of its kind in the Country. Dr. Abdus Sattar Abbasi (Head CIF) was also available on the occasion.

Prof. Abbas also had meetings with Prof. Dr. Azmi Omer (President & CEO INCEIF) and Prof. Dr. Akram Laldin (Executive Director ISRA).

Prof. Dr. Qaisar Abbas giving a memento to Prof. Dr. Azmi Omer

During the visit CIIT delegation visited International Islamic University Malaysia (IIUM) and agreed with IIUM to start relevant proceedings to launch joint MS program in Islamic finance in collaboration with International Islamic Institute of Banking and Finance at IIUM.

CIIT Delegation at International Islamic University Malaysia

Prof. Dr. Abbas

Qaisar had very productive visit of University Putra Malaysia (UPM). Prof. Dr. –Ing. Ir. Renuganth Varatharajoo (Deputy Vice-Chancellor, Industry and Community Relations) gave presentation to the CIIT delegation and informed about globally leading programs of UPM. Both sides agreed to initiate necessary proceedings in ten identified areas of mutual expertise.

Meeting at University Putra Malaysia

