

Seminar on Research Grant Management

Dr. Muhammad Khan gave presentation on Research Grant Management in University of Lahore. The presentation covered various aspects which includes overseeing the administrative, financial, and compliance aspects of a research project funded by a grant. In addition, Dr. Khan has also described the process for effective management of research grants, ensuring compliance with funding requirements and supporting the success of research project.

